

A 19-ROOM RUSTIC ECO-LODGE IN KAREN STATE

Take a Walk on the Green Side

Location

Hpa-An & Karen State.

Fringed by the Andaman Sea and its thousands of islands to the west and the Dawna Hills, a range of mountains which borders Thailand to the east, the area showcases some of Myanmar's most spectacular scenery. A patchwork of hills and plains punctuated by limestone karsts is bisected by the majestic Salween River, which flows more than 2,000 kilometres from its source in Tibet through Myanmar until it reaches the Andaman at Moulmein.

19 Cottages, Family Cottages and Sky Dome

Here individual cottages blend traditional Karen architecture with modern comfort. Guests will enjoy a back to nature experience in a landscape abundant with the area's unique plant life and views of the striking Mount Zwe Ka Bin.
